

ABSTRACT

A composition comprises a bioactive compound that increases the rate of fermentation of a microorganism, wherein the bioactive compound binds to a thaumatin-like protein. Particularly contemplated bioactive compounds are prepared from plants of the family poaceae, have a molecular weight of no more than 1000Da, and have a UV absorption maximum of about 260nm.

5